ABOUT

Atlas Language Services, Inc. is a dedicated professional language service company (LSC) based in the United States. Founded in 2000, Atlas Language Services, Inc. started with a management team who helped pioneer language interpretation and translation during the early and mid-1990's.

Assisting the Judical Council as well as the California Court Interpreters Association (CCIA) in setting standards and state regulations in what defines legal proceedings and requirements was pivotal to establishing high standards and requirements for our language teams. Our management team brings well over forty years of experience with us. In addition, we have been involved in some of the highest profile cases as well as the translation of millions of words.

With our main sales office in Chicago and our corporate office in the Northwest Suburbs of Chicago, our team is centrally located in the United States allowing us to quickly and effectively handle needs anywhere through the country.
